

Artist Interview Questions by CRW 2008

Full Name: Brenton Brown

Birthday: July 1st 1973

Birthplace: South Africa

Family: yes! two beautiful girls - jude, my wife and bella my 2 month old daughter.

Who would you trade lives with for a day? T-Bone Burnett and Bob Dylan simultaneously.

What book are you reading now? The Maytrees - Annie Dillard, and Atonement Child - Francine Rivers

What CD is playing in your car right now? Because of your love (you did say honest answers right?)

What is the best thing about being an artist? there is no hierarchy.

What is the worst thing about being an artist? there is no hierarchy.

Biggest career embarrassment: almost every hair cut i've had since 16.

Most memorable career concert: A gig at the Royal Albert Hall London.

Most memorable moment in creating your most recent record: Listening to Leeland's parts on Adoration.

What is your favorite hometown hangout? A secret surf break.

What is something you want others to know about you? I grew up in Africa, studied in England, live in America.

Who has been the most influential person in your career? My worship pastor - whoever that happened to be.

How did you get into the music industry? leading worship for my small group.

Favorite song: Blackbird

Favorite vacation spot: East Coast South Africa.

Favorite food: english chocolate

Favorite drink: diet coke

Guilty pleasure: facebook photo albums.
i love em.

Worst fear: premature hair loss.

What was your very first job? sweeper.

What is the question you are most tired of answering? 'where do you see yourself in 5 years?'

Choose one adjective to describe your music style: persistent.

What is the number one thing you hope people get out of your music? the presence of God.

On Jul 23, 2008, at 2:27 PM, Jennifer Hanson-dePaula wrote:
<CRW_Artist_Interview?s.doc>